The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 67-72 and 74-81 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Martin, US 5,575,817. Because of the similar diameters of the lower limbs of the inverted Y-shape (patent claim 17: column 6, lines 6-7) and because of the inclusion of the compressible, self-expanding mesh supports, the extender 2 is certainly capable of mating with the longer leg 4, even though such was not the intent.

The Applicant's remarks have been reviewed but are deemed to be moot in view of the new grounds of rejection, which was necessitated by the added language pertaining to the second leg terminating in the first section of the vasculature (claim 67, line 6). Therefore:

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Application/Control Number: 09/777,274
